In the event of inclement weather, the Mass will be celebrated in the Basilica of Saint Michael the Archangel.

ST VINCENT DEPAUL: Christ’s saving work on earth continues through his disciples...and now through us. When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts, into our lives and into the hearts of those who are poor.

LITURGICAL REFLECTION: The Church continues the great Easter celebration. For fifty days we commemorate the glorious resurrection of Christ from the dead. It is the resurrection of the Lord that grounds our faith. At the Funeral Mass we commend our deceased brother or sister in the sure and certain hope that, together with all who have died with Christ, our dead will rise with Christ on the last day. Death and resurrection are at the heart of the believing Christian. Christ died for the forgiveness of our sins. His resurrection confirms the Father’s love for his children. Life has been restored and there is victory over sin and death. Order of Christian Funerals, 1998/1989, Numbers 175 . Diocese of Altoona Johnstown Liturgy Office, 925 S. Logan Blvd. Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania 16648.

Families and the Gospel

May 6 John 15:9-17

Today’s gospel challenges us to “love one another as I have loved you.” Jesus is our model and he asks us to “lay down our life” (our time, attention, opinions and needs) for each other. This is the sacrament of the family, when God is made visible in our sacrificial love for one another

Stewardship Reflections

Seventh Sunday of Easter May 13, 2018

The stewardship of disciples is not reducible only to one task or another. It involves embracing, cultivating, enjoying, sharing – and sometimes also giving up – the goods of human life. [Stewardship: A Disciple’s Response – 10th Anniv. Ed., USCCB 2002]

Beatitudes for Mothers

Blessed are Mothers

Who did without for us, they will be rewarded.

Blessed are Mothers

Who lost sleep when we were sick, they will find rest.

Blessed are Mothers

Who taught us how to pray, they will share God's kingdom.

Blessed are Mothers

Who comforted us, they shall be comforted.

Blessed are Mothers

Who taught us right from wrong, they will know justice.

Blessed are Mothers

Who shared with us the meaning of peace, they shall know peace.

Blessed are Mothers

Who taught us the importance of loving God and each other, they shall see God.
