Sacred Three
The Ever One
The Trinity

ST VINCENT DEPAUL: As we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity we also realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for us each day. Believing in this our lives can then overflow in thanksgiving and praise. This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brought the love and care of Jesus to the poor. Thank You!

LITURGICAL REFLECTION: Today the Church commemorates the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. It is our custom to begin and end prayer in the name of the Trinity. The great doxology at Mass celebrates the triune being of God: Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, for ever and ever. Amen. Today make the sign of the cross slowly and reflect on the words you speak. May God, our Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier, watch over us, protect us, and lead us through this life to our home in heaven.

Families and the Gospel

May 27 Mt. 28:16-20

In today's gospel Jesus commands, "Teach them to carry out everything I have commanded you." This command is meant for every Christian. In light of the command, parenting is not only the most difficult task a person can take on, it is also one of the most apostolic and missionary tasks. Jesus commands all parents to teach their children "all that I have commanded you."

Stewardship Reflections

Holy Trinity Sunday May 20, 2018

"Jesus not only calls people to him but also forms them and sends them out in his service. Being sent on a mission is a consequence of being a disciple. Whoever wants to follow Christ will have much work to do on his behalf." (Stewardship: A Disciple's Response,)

Holy Trinity Sunday

This feast calls our attention to the mystery of the Trinity, the Father, Son, and Spirit in relationship to one another. Our God is a god of relationships, and being made in his image we, too, are a people in relationship to others. We are in relationship not only to others but to the persons of the Trinity. By baptism, we are brought into their family of love!

Today might be a good day to examine the quality of our relationships with each other. Are they relationships built on mutual respect and self-giving? The Trinity can be a model for us of what our ties to others should be like. Have each family member describe the relationship which is most important in his or her life.

Pay special attention to the way you make the sign of the cross and think about the meaning of it when you use it this week.

Reprinted from ORDINARY TIMES- Rituals and Traditions for Families from Pentecost to Thanksgiving, published by The Family Life Office.

Memorial Day

Memorial Day is a good time to remember family members who have gone home to the Lord. These memories are sacred for they rekindle our faith and hope for a future reunion. We were born from their love and will return to their love.
