STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION: In today’s Gospel, Jesus invites his disciples to rest after their ministry. But the crowds did not give them peace. As the Twelve have shared in Jesus’ ministry, they now appear to share his popularity. We who are Jesus’ disciples today have also been sent to share the Gospel with others. Perhaps our commitment to following Jesus as his disciple leaves us feeling tired and overwhelmed. In today’s Gospel, we hear Jesus affirm the importance of times of rest and renewal. Jesus wanted his disciples to come away and spend time alone with him. This is what we seek and find in our life of prayer and in our celebration of the Eucharist.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL 814-979-0272
In the Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples to “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” Vincent de Paul, a great man of action, was also a contemplative. His contemplation of God’s love overflowed into practical love for the poor.

Please know that your prayers are needed for the poor and forgotten who live their lives in desperation. Your financial support relieves suffering and brings hope.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE by Bud Ozar

In today’s gospel “the apostles gathered around and told Jesus all they had done.” Listening allows the other person to express, understand and appreciate their experiences. Whether it is the excited chatter of young child or the repetitious stories of an aging grandparent, listening is important. It is not just time well spent, it is sacred time.
